The syllabus shall be reviewed by the Office for compliance with the training standards. The syllabus must be submitted in a format that easily identifies the presentation topic, the trainer(s) for each topic, the time allotted to each topic, any training activities, and the inclusion of the break times. The Office shall notify the trainer or training program of any deficiencies no later than 10 working days before the program is to be offered. Any deficiencies in the program syllabus shall be corrected prior to the commencement of the training program.

All training programs must provide the participants with copies of Rule 4-510 UCJA, Rule 104 (the ethical code), Title 78, Chapter 31b, Alternative Dispute Resolution Act, and Title 78 Chapter 31c, Utah Uniform Mediation Act. Time spent reading the required materials may not count towards the required number of hours of training and can be completed by participants at times when the training program is not being conducted. (4)(A)(iv) Participant attendance: Participants must complete their training requirement by attending one entire program. The primary trainer is responsible for ensuring that the approved syllabus is complied with. Under no circumstances may a participant be excused from attending portions of the training; any portion of training missed shall be made up as directed by the primary trainer.

(4)(B) The Administrative Office shall prepare a videotape demonstrating the use of ADR and the application of this rule and the URCADR to the ADR program. The videotape shall include information as to the differences between mediation and arbitration, and the different procedures and the different effects of an award between nonbinding and binding arbitration. (6) Referral of civil actions filed after January 1, 1995.

(6)(A) All cases subject to this rule shall be referred to the ADR program, pursuant to this rule and URCADR, upon the filing of a responsive pleading unless the parties have participated in a collaborative law process. The statement shall be signed by both counsel and the party and shall state that counsel and the party have reviewed the ADR videotape and have discussed proceeding under the ADR program, but have determined that participation in ADR should be deferred. ~~If participation in the ADR program is deferred in a divorce, paternity or annulment action, the case shall proceed to mediation within 90 days of the filing of an answer unless good cause is shown why mediation should not~~

~~occur.~~ If participation in the ADR program is deferred ~~in other cases~~, the court and parties are required to address the usefulness of mediation or arbitration in resolving the case no later than the first pretrial conference. In no event shall this supersede a trial judge's ability to proceed with a trial on a date certain.

(6)(A)(ii) All parties file with the clerk a written agreement signed by counsel and the parties to submit the case to nonbinding arbitration pursuant to URCADR Rule 102.

(6)(A)(iii) All the parties file with the clerk a written agreement signed by counsel and the parties to submit the case to binding arbitration pursuant to Chapter 31a of Title 78 or the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 USC § 1 et seq., or as otherwise provided by law.

(6)(B) At the time a complaint is filed, the clerk shall provide to the party filing the complaint a notice stating the requirements and options set forth in the preceding subparagraphs. The notice shall include directions for obtaining a copy of the videotape. The party shall serve a copy of the notice on the other parties.

(6)(C) If no response has been filed under (6)(A)(i), (ii) or (iii) within 30 days after the responsive pleading is filed, the action shall be stayed pending compliance with URCADR rules applicable to mediation.

(6)(D) If the parties have timely filed an agreement to submit the case to nonbinding arbitration under URCADR Rule 102, the court shall issue an order staying the action and all discovery under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, except that discovery may continue under URCADR Rule 102(e). All subsequent proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with URCADR Rule 102 and such timetable as the court may establish to ensure the arbitration is instituted and completed without undue delay or expense. All timelines shall be tolled during the pendency of the ADR proceedings, and the timelines shall resume upon notification to the court of the final conclusion of ADR proceedings.

(7) At any time:

(7)(A) the court, on its own motion, may refer the action or any issues therein to the ADR program.

(7)(B) upon its own motion, or for good cause shown upon motion by a party, the court may order that an action that has been referred to the ADR program be withdrawn from the ADR program and restored to the trial calendar.

(7)(C) a party, believing that continuing in mediation is no longer productive, may terminate participation and shall notify the other party and mediator.

(8) If a party unilaterally terminates a nonbinding arbitration procedure after the hearing has begun, that party shall be responsible for all of the ADR provider's fee, and any other party may move that the court also award reasonable attorney fees against the terminating party unless the terminating party shows good cause for the termination.

(9) The judge to whom an action is assigned shall retain full authority to supervise the action consistent with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and these rules.

(10) Notice requirements.

(10)(A) Any time the parties determine to use mediation or arbitration in the resolution of the case, the plaintiff shall notify the court and specify the expected date for completion of the ADR process.

(10)(B) Upon conclusion of an ADR process, the plaintiff shall notify the court of the outcome of the ADR process on a form provided by the court.

(11) Selection of ADR provider(s).

(11)(A) Upon referral of a case or any issues therein to the ADR program, the Director shall provide the parties with a copy of the roster, and the parties shall choose the ADR provider(s) for the case. If mediation is the selected ADR process, one mediator shall be selected. If arbitration is the selected ADR process, one arbitrator shall be selected, unless the parties stipulate to or the court orders the use of a panel of three arbitrators. If a panel is used, the Director shall, from the panel selected, designate a chair who shall preside at all arbitration proceedings.

(11)(B) The parties may select:

(11)(B)(i) An ADR provider from the roster; or

(11)(B)(ii) An ADR provider pro tempore having specialized skill, training, or experience in relevant subject matter. Pro tempore providers must agree in writing to comply with this rule and the URCADR.

(11)(C) If the parties are unable to select a provider within 15 days of referral of the case to the ADR program, the parties shall return the list to the Director with the names of up to half of the members of the roster stricken. If there are more than two parties, each party shall be permitted to strike a proportion of names equal to or less than its proportion of the number of the parties. The Director shall select the provider(s) from among those providers not stricken by any party. If the parties do not return the list within 15 days or express no preference, the Director shall make the selection. The Director shall mail notice of the selection to all parties and the selected ADR provider.

(11)(D) If a party, within 10 days of mailing of the notice of selection, files a written request that the selected provider be disqualified under Canon II of URCADR Rule 104, or if the ADR provider requests to withdraw for good reason from participation in a particular case to which that provider was appointed, the Director shall select another available qualified ADR provider to participate in that case, giving deference to the expressed preferences of the parties, if any, as provided in these rules.

(11)(E) If the parties choose to utilize mediation or non-binding arbitration, the parties shall contact the ADR provider directly for services.

(12) The fees of the ADR provider shall be paid in advance and divided equally between or among the parties unless otherwise provided by the court or agreed by the parties. Any party may petition the court for a waiver of all or part of the fees so allocated on a showing of impecuniosity or other compelling reason. If such waiver is granted, the party shall contact the Director who will appoint a pro bono ADR provider.

(13) An ADR provider acting as a mediator or arbitrator in cases under the ADR program shall be immune from liability to the same extent as judges of this state, except for such sanctions the judge having jurisdiction of the case may impose for a violation of URCADR Rule 104 which raises a substantial question as to the impartiality of the ADR provider and the conduct of the ADR proceeding involved.

(14) No ADR provider may be required to testify as to any aspect of an ADR proceeding except as to any claim of violation of URCADR Rule 104 which raises a substantial question as to the impartiality of the ADR provider and the conduct of the ADR proceeding involved.

(15) All ADR providers providing services pursuant to the ADR program shall be subject to this rule and the URCADR.

(16) Location of ADR Proceedings. Unless otherwise agreed upon by all the parties, all ADR proceedings shall be held at the office of the ADR provider or such other place designated by the ADR provider.
